

Many people worked together to build the Vernetta Smith Chehalis Timberland Library in 2008. Isn't it beautiful? It replaced the original Chehalis Library built in 1908. The fountain in front of the library was designed to look just like a fountain that once stood in downtown Chehalis. This library has a drive-through window. It was the very first library drive-through window in Washington State!